PHYSICAL ATLAS,

—OR—

PRACTICAL FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK,

CONTAINING

300 Modern and Up-to-Date Recipes For Treating both General and Special Diseases.

*Diseases Diagnosed by Illustrations
Showing the Location of Pains and Aches Produced by Each Ailment.*

COLLECTED AND COMPILED BY DR. B. F. WEAVER, SPECIALIST, AND AUTHOR OF
DR. WEAVER'S NEW ILLUSTRATED FAMILY ATLAS OF HUMAN DISEASES, WOMAN'S GUIDE TO HEALTH,
VENEREAL DISEASES, ETC.

BUCYRUS, OHIO.

PUBLISHED BY THE AUTHOR.

1902.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1902, by
DR. B. F. WEAVER,
In the Clerk's Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

Weights and Measures.

One teaspoonful.....60 minims or drops
 One dessertspoonful.....120 drops
 One tablespoonful.....240 drops

One teaspoonful.....1 drachm
 One tablespoonful..... $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce

Twenty grains, minims or drops 1 scruple
 Three scruples.....1 drachm
 Eight drachms.....1 ounce
 Sixteen ounces.....1 pint or pound

The letter "M." at the end of a recipe stands for mix.

Sig.—sig'na.* "Mark," or "write." A word added at the end of recipes to show what directions are to be copied by the druggist for the guidance of the patient.

Q. S. Ad, reads, "add quantity sufficient to make."

R.—Rec'i-pe.* "Take"

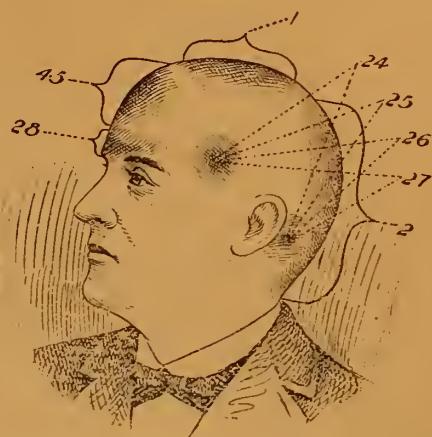

Proportionate Doses for Children.

When teaspoonful doses are prescribed for adults, the proportionate dose for children is as follows:

Age 6 months.....	3 to 5 drops
" 1 year	5 to 7 "
" 2 years.....	9 "
" 3 ".....	11 "
" 4 ".....	13 "
" 5 ".....	15 "
" 6 ".....	18 "
" 7 ".....	21 "
" 8 ".....	24 "
" 9 ".....	27 "
" 10 ".....	30 "
" 11 ".....	33 "
" 12 ".....	36 "
" 13 ".....	39 "
" 14 ".....	42 "
" 15 ".....	44 "
" 16 ".....	47 "
" 17 ".....	50 "
" 18 ".....	52 "
" 19 ".....	55 "
" 20 ".....	58 "
" 21 ".....	60 "

In either adults or children, females usually require smaller doses than males.

When giving a child medicine from a bottle that was prepared for adults, always dilute with water, and add sugar to sweeten.

This engraving represents the different forms of headache. No. 1, nervous headache; 2, torpid liver; 28, a lack of acid in the stomach, and 45, a lack of alkali in the stomach.

Thus it is seen that each form of headache is produced by a different cause; hence, requires different treatment. So it is with all other forms of disease.

With few exceptions, each ailment causes one or more isolated symptoms; that is, each disease causes a pain or an ache at some point on the body where they are not produced by other ailments. It is these symptoms only, that makes it possible to place before the public a practical system by which diseases are diagnosed, and, at the same time, can be properly treated.

Dyspepsia.—

Sir T. Lauder Brunton emphasizes the following points in instructing patients who are troubled with dyspepsia:

1. Eat slowly, masticate and insalivate thoroughly. And, if necessary, follow Sir Andrew Clark's rule—count the bites.
2. Take the solids and liquids separately, so as not to dilute the gastric juice nor weaken the digestive powers of the stomach.
3. The best fluid is hot water, taken early in the morning and an hour or two before noon and evening meals.
 - a. Alkalies before meals stimulate secretion of gastric (stomach) juice.
 - b. Acids before meals check acid secretions of the stomach.

Dr. Hall's Secret Remedy.—

Hall's secret remedy is simply "flushing the bowels with warm water," which affords immediate relief in stomach and bowel trouble, and if kept up, purifies the entire system.

It is a specific for kidney, liver and lung trouble, cleanses and beautifies the skin, and for this purpose is of great value to ladies who desire a clear complexion. It affords relief and cure to almost all female disorders.

The water should be used at bedtime, warm as can be borne, and taken in abundance, all that can be taken, from a quart to a gallon, and after taking and discharging it thoroughly, inject about a pint more, with a little salt added, and retain until morning.

When used for the general health, it may be injected every third or fourth evening, but in case of sickness, it should be used every other night. Capsicum, slippery elm, lobelia and other things may be used with advantage in the water when indicated.
